

Get the most out of your Medicare.

Take a few minutes to complete this enrollment check-up and review your plan to help you decide if your current coverage will meet your needs in 2007. If you are satisfied with your current plan, you don't need to re-enroll. Your coverage will continue through 2007. If you want to review other plans, Medicare is here to help you – online, in person, or on the phone.

Would other Medicare insurance options better meet your needs?

People with Medicare have more insurance options than ever including Original Medicare, Medigap policies and Medicare Advantage plans. Now is the best time to check and see if these options are right for you. Go to www.medicare.gov to compare all of your options and search for plans in your area.
